

Community Development

City of Enid Offices

401 W. Garriott

580-234-4000

STORAGE AND PARKING OF MOTOR VEHICLES

The City of Enid is committed to maintaining clean and attractive residential neighborhoods. To help accomplish this goal, the City of Enid has adopted regulations concerning the parking and storage of vehicles.

Storage and Parking of Motor Vehicles

Storage and parking of automobiles, recreational vehicles and commercial vehicles shall not be permitted on any lot occupied by a dwelling or any lot located in a residential zoning district, except in accordance to the following provisions.

Commercial Vehicle

A vehicle with a maximum rated carrying capacity of one and one-half (1½) tons used for commercial purposes.

Only one commercial vehicle, not exceeding one and one-half (1½) tons rated capacity shall be permitted on a lot occupied by a dwelling or a residentially zoned lot. Exceptions to these regulations are commercial vehicles when in service to the lots such as deliveries and repairs and maintenance to the lot.

In no case shall a commercial vehicle used for hauling explosives, gasoline or liquefied petroleum be permitted.

Private Passenger Vehicle

An automobile, station wagon, van or truck with a maximum rated capacity of one and one-half tons used exclusively as a passenger vehicle and for hauling property of the owner and used to satisfy the daily transportation needs of the inhabitants of the dwelling.

Recreational Vehicle

Such a vehicle is used primarily for hobby, vacation, extended travel, camping, sports and/or aquatic use. Such vehicle is designated for temporary occupancy only for recreational use.

No more than three recreational vehicles shall be parked or stored outside of the main accessory buildings, either temporarily or permanently.

No recreational vehicle shall be parked in a manner that would constitute a traffic hazard or be parked or stored in a public right of way.

No recreational vehicle shall be used for living, sleeping or housekeeping purposes except that one recreational vehicle shall be allowed for occasional living purposes to accommodate visitors for no more than seventy two (72) hours at one time.

Prohibited Parking

It shall be unlawful and an offense for any person to park any private passenger vehicle, commercial vehicle or recreational vehicle in the front yard or exterior side yard of any residence lying within an agricultural, residential, commercial or industrial district.

Exceptions

Vehicles parked within a designated parking area such as a garage carport or driveway.

Temporary Parking Permit

Disabled persons may seek a temporary parking permit from Community Development. These permits shall be good for no more than one year and are personal to the resident requesting the permit.